Health and Safety Solutions in Agriculture
Webinar Series for Safety Managers and Health Educators

This 4-part series provides resources for employers, managers, safety professionals, and community educators involved in worker health and safety training in both English and Spanish. Each session will be led by a line-up of faculty from the Pacific Northwest Agricultural Health and Safety (PNASH) Center and partners who will invite discussion and share lessons learned, practical resources and ready-to-use toolkits for understanding and preventing injuries and illnesses on the farm. Topics include sexual harassment prevention, heat illness education and awareness, dairy safety and health, and pesticide safety.
